Louis Kella is Busy With the Candidate Between Addresses.

NEWPORT (R. I.) Oct. 29.—The concrete steamer Cape Fear, a United States Shipping Board vessel, was sunk in the deepest part of Narragansett Bay tonight in a collision with the Savannah Line steamer City of Atlanta. At a late hour nineteen of the crew of thirty-four of the sunken vessel were unaccounted for. The Cape Fear sank in three minutes, about half way between Castle Hill, on the Newport shore, and Rose Island, going down bow first in 125 fathoms.

Just how the accident happened was not definitely determined to night, especially as the weather was clear and a light breeze running.

WHISTLE ANSWERED. Capt. Garfield of the City of Atlanta, in describing the accident, said that he picked up the lights of the Cape Fear and signalled with one whistle, which was answered. He was bearing to port, he said, with plenty of room, when suddenly the Cape Fear swung across his bow, blowing two whistles as a signal after she had turned to cross to the other side. He ordered full speed astern, but could not avoid the collision.

The City of Atlanta struck squarely with her bow, the blow cutting a deep hole in the Cape Fear. Lines immediately were thrown aboard, but the steamer sank so quickly that the majority of the crew had to dive overboard. The City of Atlanta anchored in the bay with a seven-foot hole above the main deck and her bow badly damaged.

NO ONE WAS INJURED aboard the City of Atlanta, but of those rescued from the Cape Fear three were slightly injured. Capt. Harry Higgins had cut about the head. The rescued remained aboard the City of Atlanta tonight which will proceed with them to Providence tomorrow for repairs.

The Cape Fear registered 1893 tons and was said to be one of the last of the concrete vessels built as an experiment during the war to remain in commission. The City of Atlanta registers 4117 tons.

WANDERER SENTENCED TO PRISON.

Long Siege in Jury Room Ends in Conviction; Cocchi Guilty in Italian Court.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Early recognition of the new government in Mexico was forecast today by Secretary Colby. Whether it will precede inauguration of President-elect Obregon, number 1, was not stated. In revealing that discussions have been in progress with Roberto V. Pesqueira, confidential agent of the Mexican government, however, Mr. Colby said that these were promise of a speedy and happy outcome.

The announcement came as a surprise. Earlier in the day a report published in New York that recognition was imminent met with enthusiastic approval at the State Department. A few hours later, however, Secretary Colby made public a letter from Mr. Pesqueira as the basis for announcement, saying it afforded assurance upon which the department was prepared to recognize the new government.

Mr. Pesqueira's letter told of his informal negotiations with the government in Mexico. He said that he had been in Mexico for some time, and that he had been in contact with the government. He said that he had been in contact with the government, and that he had been in contact with the government.

SCULPTOR :: MAKING :: A :: BUST :: OF :: HARDING.

Louis Kella is Busy With the Candidate Between Addresses.

Senator Harding a Good "Model."

The noted sculptor, Louis Kella, is making use of the front porch in Marion for more than speechmaking. But sometimes he works on the lawn, too, as shown in the picture. Between addresses of a Republican candidate, he sits still fairly well, but occasionally has to jump up for another talk when a new delegation arrives.

PROFESSOR IS OUSTED.

Wooster College Trustees Resent Circular Reflecting on Harding.

WOOSTER (O.) Oct. 29.—The resignation of Prof. William Estabrook, Chancellor as a member of the faculty of the College of Wooster was requested by the board of trustees tonight on account of exigencies due to the publication of letters as to Senator Harding.

The action of the board, in the form of a resolution, followed a hearing during which Prof. Chancellor answered questions touching the authorship of the letters which were alleged to have been inimical to the Senator's candidacy.

TEXT OF RESOLUTION. The resolution calling for Prof. Chancellor's resignation follows: "It having come to the knowledge of the board that circular letters are being scattered broadcast throughout the country with reference to Senator Harding, Republican nominee for the Presidency, which letters are attributed to Prof. William E. Estabrook, a part of which he admits to have been written by him; and whereas such circular letters issued on the eve of the election are for the manifest purpose of appealing to prejudice and to influence the electorate of the country at the coming election;

"Therefore, be it resolved that we, the board of trustees of the College of Wooster, repudiate and denounce such political methods as utterly unworthy of our college and country."

DISCLAIMS ALL AUTHORITY. "And be it further resolved by the board that the College of Wooster indignantly disclaims all connection with, knowledge of, or authority for the making and issuing of any such circular letters."

Japan is Interested. TOKIO, Oct. 29.—The reports that Washington, D. C., of California has secured large concessions in Siberia have created interest in Japan. The Foreign Office is quoted as declaring that it has received no direct confirmation of the granting of the concessions, but that it appears from advices received from the United States there is some truth in the reports.

Home Rule Through Stage. LONDON, Oct. 29.—The Irish home-rule bill was passed through committee stage in the House of Commons today without further important amendment. Some important modifications are intended by the government, including the question of making candidates for Parliament take the oath of office. The tug, whose flag was flown at half mast, docked at the customs-house quay. Enormous crowds lined the opposite quays and the nearby bridges.

THE GOVERNMENT authorities in Cork immediately notified Deputy Lord Mayor O'Connell and the bishop of Cork that no military display would be permitted at the funeral of MacSwiney, and that neither uniforms nor Republican army badges would be allowed.

The funeral party arrived in Cork shortly before 7 p.m. The mourners were accompanied by Arthur (Continued on Second Page.)

EARTHQUAKES SHAKE TWO CHILEAN CITIES.

VALPARAISO (Chile) Oct. 29.—Violent earthquake shocks, with a vertical movement shook the provinces of Atacama and Coquimbo, north of this city, this morning, the tremors lasting two and a half minutes.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Isaac E. Ferguson, Chicago lawyer, and Charles E. Ruthenburg of Cleveland were convicted of criminal anarchy by a jury in the Supreme Court tonight. Justice Weeks immediately sentenced them to State's prison for terms of from five to ten years each.

The men had been on trial since October 4 under an indictment returned last year alleging that, in promoting publication of the Communist manifesto in the Revolutionary Age, they advocated the overthrow of organized government by force. James Larkin, the Irish leader convicted several months ago, was indicted at the same time.

Ferguson defended himself and Ruthenburg throughout the trial. Ruthenburg testified he had been the Socialist party's candidate for several offices in Ohio, including those of Mayor of Cleveland and Governor of the State.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—With the practical certainty of his election next Tuesday, the family tree of Senator Harding becomes an interesting study for those interested in knowing the quality and nationality of the forebears of the next occupant of the White House. The National Republican Committee has just completed at a great deal of expense the ancestral chart of the successor to Woodrow Wilson and it is as follows:

FIRST TO ARRIVE.

One of the first Hardings to arrive in America was Abraham Harding of Braintree, Mass., who came from England, possibly with Capt. George, in 1621. He married Elizabeth Adams in 1630. He became a proprietor at Medford, Mass., in 1650 and died there in 1655, leaving a son, Abraham, who was born in that year.

THE VILLAGE SMITHY.
A near relative of the first Abraham was Stephen Harding, of Braintree and Providence. He was born about 1624 and married Bridget Eaton (or Estance) a sister or other near relative of Thomas Estance, of Swansea, R. I. Thomas Estance was a Welshman and came to America from Hereford, Eng. Stephen Harding was admitted to membership in the Baptist church at Swansea. He was a blacksmith. Later he removed to Providence, where he died, Feb. 20, 1681.

SETTLE IN WYOMING VALLEY.
His son, Abraham Harding, died in Providence, November 25, 1694, leaving a widow, Deborah, and seven children, one of whom, Stephen, was born in Providence in 1681. He had six children, five of whom were sons. Two of these, Abraham and Stephen, were the sons who settled in Wyoming Valley.

Abraham was born at Warwick, R. I. in 1720. He removed to Watertown, Ct. in 1732 and in 1761 to Orange county, New York. He married Anna Dolson and died in Susquehanna county, Pennsylvania, in 1806. Abraham Harding served in the Revolutionary War as second lieutenant in Col. William Allison's regiment of New York Militia, being commissioned by the Provincial Congress Dec. 1, 1775. In 1778 he was made captain and later second major of his regiment. His brother, Capt. Stephen Harding, commanded Fort Jenkins at the time of the Wyoming massacre. Capt. Abraham Harding's son, Abraham, Jr., was born at Watertown, Ct. in 1740. He accompanied his father to New York State in 1781. The following year he returned to Connecticut and there married Huldah Tyson, and they settled near his father's farm in Orange county, N. Y.

In 1777 he and his family with two brothers, left Orange county for the Connecticut settlement of Westmoreland at Wyoming, where his uncle, Stephen, had settled in 1769. His father followed them five years later.

MIGRATE TO OHIO.
The younger Abraham Harding's oldest son, Amos, was born at Port Jarvis, N. Y., March 10, 1784, and lived in the Wyoming Valley from 1777 to 1809. In 1784 he married Phoebe Tripp, a cousin of Francis Slocum, the "lost sister of Wyoming."

He had been in foreign service five months and was killed May 31, 1818. He received his training and commission at Rockwell Field. Cause of death has never been ascertained, as he was the lone pilot of a scout airplane. Funeral arrangements will be announced when the body arrives.

Their son, Charles Alexander Harding, born April 8, 1820, and died April 17, 1873, married in 1842, Mary Ann Crawford, daughter of Joshua Crawford, who was born in Baltimore and was the son of John Crawford, of Irish-Scottish descent, whose family originated in Scotland. It is thought, in the parish of Cranford, Lanarkshire.

OF DUTCH DESCENT.
Dr. George Tyrone Harding, father of Warren G. Harding, is the son of Charles Alexander and Mary Ann Crawford Harding. He was born in 1844 and married Phoebe Elizabeth Dickerson, who was born in 1843 and died in 1910. She was descended from a Vankirk family, which came from Holland about 1630 and most of whose descendants settled in Pennsylvania.

SEND REMAINS HOME.
GLENDALE, Oct. 29.—Mr. and Mrs. A. Meyer of East Chestnut street, have received word that the body of their son, Lieut. Aviator Lester Meyer, had arrived in New York City. Lieut. Meyer was the only boy from Glendale who died overseas. He had been in foreign service five months and was killed May 31, 1918. He received his training and commission at Rockwell Field. Cause of death has never been ascertained, as he was the lone pilot of a scout airplane. Funeral arrangements will be announced when the body arrives.

Red Troops, Sent to Quell Revolt,
Join Rebellion.

(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

COPENHAGEN, Oct. 29.—A dispatch to the Berlingske Tidende, from Kovno, Lithuania, reports a revolt in the regions of Podolia, Kherson and Odessa. Red troops were sent to quell these rebellions. Of these, half joined in the defection, and the others were decimated in the fighting.

The dispatch adds that the Red forces are retiring from Kiev, and are preparing to evacuate Odessa. The revolt is said to be extending toward Ekaterinoslav.

HUNGARY GETS DEMAND.
(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
PARIS, Oct. 29.—The Allies have sent a note to the Hungarian government, demanding ratification of the treaty of Trianon, not later than November 15. It was learned today, in the event that no action is taken by that time, the note points out that certain consequences will result. A law providing for ratification has been introduced in the Hungarian parliament.

PLEA MADE TO JOIN
GREAT LAKES TO SEA.MIDDLE WEST BUSINESS IN-TERESTS SEEK ST. LAW-RENCE RIVER CHANNEL.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—A plea to join the Great Lakes with the sea was voiced today by representatives of business interests of Illinois and Wisconsin before the international joint commission which is considering the proposal for a St. Lawrence River channel which will link the ports on the lakes with the Atlantic.

A. S. Brown, representing the Chicago Board of Trade, told the commission the waterway would make a saving of $9,561,500 a year over the cost of shipment from midwest points to New York by an all-rail route.

Dr. Walter Lichtenstein, representing the Chicago clearinghouse, said that Chicago banks were better able to handle a heavy foreign business than any group of banks in the country, New York not excepted.

John Barrett of the Pan-American Union urged the development of the St. Lawrence project on the ground that it would enable the Great Lakes States to get into direct communication with South and Central America.

GIRL WILL ANSWER
KIDNAPING CHARGE.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Deciding not to fight extradition, Miss Betty Brainerd of Seattle, Wash., left tonight in custody of two officers for Tacoma, Wash., to answer a charge of kidnaping, for which she has been indicted in the western city. The young woman, accused of kidnaping the 3-year-old son of George T. Stagg, a former New York newspaper man, recently was arrested here.

One of the officers who accompanied Miss Brainerd was Mrs. Ida Cunningham, a deputy sheriff and maternal grandmother of the kidnaped boy. The child has been returned to his mother.

Last Friday and Saturday we held the biggest millinery sale we

PLAN EPISCOPAL CAMPAIGN.

Churches of Eight Counties Announce Program of Activities.

Arrangements for an extensive campaign, to be carried out in the ninety Episcopal parishes and missions in the eight southern counties of California, composing the diocese of Los Angeles, as a part of the nation-wide campaign of the Episcopal Church, were announced yesterday. The campaign will extend to December 15, when it is hoped, there will be realized the meaning of the statement: "When the Episcopal Church wakes up, then look out!" attributed to Billy Sunday, by Dean McCormack of St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral.

The executive headquarters of the campaign are at 523 South Olive street. Bishop Johnson, Bishop Coatsworth, Stevens and Executive Secretary F. U. Hughes, are directing the campaign.

On the afternoon of Sunday, November 21, the every-member canvass will be conducted, at which time, pledges are to be made, covering the missionary work for 1921 in the diocese, and for the world's needs, the amounting to a total of $174,000, or an average of four cents per communicant.

In addition, pledges for the year's extension of each respective church and mission will be made. Following this, a series of preaching missions will be held throughout the diocese from November 28 to December 15, culminating in an "Offering-for-Service."

Schools and conferences for the training of Sunday-school teachers are to be established in each county, each to be in charge of an expert on religious instruction.

TWO-DAY CONFERENCE.
FIRST CONGREGATIONAL.

With representatives of thirty churches expected to attend the church school conference, for the Congregational churches of Los Angeles and vicinity, will open at the First Congregational Church Monday and continue until Tuesday evening. Rev. Henry K. Booth, D. D., of Long Beach, will preside over the pastors' division.

The program will be the same for the two days, and will include group conferences along specialized lines of church work with children of varying ages.

The order of the conference is as follows: 4:45 p.m., devotional service, conducted by Rev. Frank M. Sheldon; 5 p.m., open forum, conducted by Miss Sarah E. Bundy; 7:15 p.m., fellowship supper in dining-room; 7:15 p.m., beginners' division, conducted by Mrs. Flora G. Halsey; primary division, conducted by Mrs. A. C. Brockway; junior division, conducted by Mrs. A. H. Wellcamp; intermediate division, conducted by Rev. H. F. Burr; senior division, conducted by Mrs. J. H. Lash; adult division, conducted by Rev. George F. Kennegott; administrative division, conducted by Rev. F. M. Sheldon; 8:15 p.m. worship; 8:30 p.m., address by Rev. Frank M. Sheldon.

BIBLE STUDENTS CONVENT.
GAMUT CLUB AUDITORIUM.

The local convention of the International Bible Students' Association will be held at the Gamut Club Auditorium tomorrow. Dr. A. J. Jurd will preside as chairman. The order of the convention is as follows: 10 a.m., registration; 11 a.m., addresses by George F. Forsyth of Long Beach, E. W. Gold of Riverside, and W. F. Davis of Pasadena. Each at 1:30 p.m.; discourse W. R. Stewart of Pasadena at 2 p.m.; service meeting, 2:30 p.m.; address by Bishop of Los Angeles at 4:45 p.m.; discourse by Edward Stark of Santa Ana at 7 p.m.

Common Sense

The first of the proposed measures on the November ballot is the "Alien Land Law." Before voting on it November 2, we ask you to consider these facts:

1. The population of California is 3,426,726 of which only 2.2 per cent are Japanese. In 1919 more white children were born in the state than the total of Japanese births for the ten years preceding.

2. California should not be placed in the position of 97.8 per cent of her population being in fear of 2.2 per cent.

3. In the last ten years our population increased 1,058,987. It was a 44.1 per cent increase, while that of the whole United States was only 14 per cent. Does that look like the state is being destroyed by its 2.2 per cent Japanese?

4. Our food supply is not keeping up with the increase of population. The first seven months of this year we did not produce enough to feed our own people; imports of food increased $1,500,000,000.

5. Why expel the Japanese farmers who raised $67,000,000 worth of food last year?

6. To persecute them off the land will make the shortage of farm labor more acute, put thousands of acres out of cultivation, reduce our food supply and inflict economic injury to the state.

7. Japanese labor on land is non-competitive. It gets the highest farm wages paid in the world. This initiative will drive it from non-competitive labor on land to competitive labor in the cities, where it consumes but no longer produces food. This change is equally injurious to city labor and to the consumers of food. This view was taken by the Labor Councils of Stockton and Sacramento in resolutions opposing "the removal of the Oriental from land to the industries."

8. Japan permits a corporation, though composed entirely of non-Japanese, to own in fee simple all the land it can buy. It also allows alien individuals to lease land of any kind for fifty years, and to acquire superficies for unlimited period. Yet Initiative No. 1 denies this reciprocal right to a handful of Japanese in California.

9. Foreigners in Japan by concessions in perpetuity own with improvements land worth many millions on which they do not even pay taxes. Yet Initiative No. 1 seeks to deny the industrious Japanese in California the human right of even leasing land for productive purposes.

10. Much has been said of the Japanese law which claims the allegiance of Japanese born in America. French law claims a child born abroad of French parents as a French citizen, subject, if a male, to military service the moment he enters French jurisdiction. Switzerland, Italy, Greece and Germany have similar laws.

11. Japan is more liberal than these countries, for she allows a child born abroad of Japanese parents to relinquish allegiance to Japan at any time before the age of 17.

12. Our National Government alone has power to settle all international questions. We look to Eastern Asia for expansion of our trade. These anti-Japanese movements, and the vituperation and abuse by agitators, and this initiative, do not represent Americanism. They disgrace and embarrass our National Government. Why do it, and injure ourselves at the same time?

13. Our Secretary of Commerce reports that in the eight months, ending August 31, this year, we sold our goods to Asia and Oceania as follows:

To Dutch East Indies	$ 34,995,550
To China	96,311,017
To Australia	73,054,230	$ 331,195,036
To British India	65,744,078
To The Philippines	61,090,161
To Japan	.....	$ 328,663,681

Japan bought of us within $2,537,355 as much as all Asia and Oceania combined. Is it wise to alienate that commerce by mistreating the Japanese in California?

14. Vote NO on Initiative No. 1 on November 2.

FINDS NO PROOF OF WHISKY PLOT

Grand Jury Gets No Evidence, District Attorney Says.

Special Agents Busy Sifting Stories of Witnesses.

Six Indicted for Smuggling Booze in from Mexico.

After spending the day investigating rumors of a whisky conspiracy here, and delving into vague reports of bribes, illegal withdrawals and the supposed dealings of a "boose ring," the Federal grand jury yesterday merely returned indictments under the Anti-Smuggling Act against six men accused of trying to bring liquor into this country from Mexico.

So far the grand jury has heard no evidence which would justify indictments against any one on more serious charges, U. S. Dist. Atty. O'Connor says, but a great mass of evidence and testimony is still to be considered, and the investigation may last for several weeks more.

The men indicted under the Anti-Smuggling Act, which provides penalties of not to exceed two years in the Federal penitentiary or a fine of not more than $2000, are Eligio Cambron and Eduardo Ruero, caught at Calexico with 143 plints of whisky in an automobile; Guadalupe Llanos and George Randoval, who had fourteen gallons of whisky concealed under the gasoline tank of their car which was stopped north of Tia Juana; Florent W. Seltis, nabbed in the same locality with six cases of Sunnyside in his machine, and Roy H. Morris, who was caught between San Diego and Tia Juana with twenty gallons of red-eye in a copper tank which was cleverly swung under the body of his auto.

Aside from the liquor phase of the smuggling case, the two witnesses called before the grand jury yesterday who testified concerning the supposed "whisky conspiracy" here were Louis Val, of the firm of Val Brothers, liquor dealers of 445 North Alameda street, and Joseph Israel.

These witnesses are supposed to have testified concerning indefinite charges that $9000 has been paid out here for liquor permits, and that many permits have been obtained for whisky for sacramental purposes when, in fact, the liquor obtained was used for beverage purposes. It is intimated that 300 barrels of whisky containing in the aggregate 12,000 gallons have been illegally withdrawn from bonded warehouses here, permits for such withdrawals, it is said, were passed upon and approved at San Francisco at the time that the late Lorin A. Handley was prohibition director.

Special Agents Welsh and Lucas were yesterday installed in offices for the sixth floor of the Federal Building, and spent their time interviewing witnesses who are supposed to know about the liquor situation here. Four additional Internal Revenue officers will join them within a few days, and the six investigators will sift over the testimony and evidence and select that which is of sufficient importance to be presented to the grand jury.

Early last month rumors of crookedness in the handling of whisky permits here became so persistent that the matter was called to the attention of Atty. Gen. Palmer, Dist. Atty. O'Connor said yesterday. This action has resulted in the present inquiry, which Mr. O'Connor says will be continued until the charges are either substantiated or disproved. "None of the evidence so far offered is corroborated," Mr. O'Connor said yesterday. "Nothing has developed which would justify any indictments."

"We are trying to sift the wheat from the chaff, and though what may be found later on, I must admit that so far we have found only chaff."

"Big Hutch" is Arraigned Upon Swindle Charge.

Everett A. ("Big Hutch") Hutchings, accused by county officers of having been the leader of bank operators in Southern California, was arraigned yesterday before Judge Willis on a charge of embezzlement. He is charged with defrauding J. B. Norris, a farmer of Decatur, Ill., of $15,000 in an asserted fake stock deal.

Former Gov. Henry T. Gage and Duke Stone, appeared as attorneys for the defendant. They read a copy of the transcript of the testimony given at the grand jury hearing last week to the indictment of Hutchings. This was promised by Dep. Dist. Atty. Powell, who later delivered the case.

The case will be called again November 3, when Hutchings will enter his plea.

DIES FROM RAZOR CUT.

Attempt at Suicide Successful; Wife Slashed too, in Improving.

Barley Harvey, former trusty in the County Jail, who several weeks ago slashed his throat with a razor after attempting to kill his wife in the same manner, died yesterday in the County Hospital. Mrs. Harvey, according to reports received by the police yesterday, is improving, and is expected to recover.

According to police reports, Harvey attempted to kill his wife and then commit suicide after being accused her with having been untrue to him while he was serving a two-year sentence in the County Jail on a charge of having passed worthless checks.

GIVEN DAMAGES FOR BEATING ON RED CAR.

E. E. Taylor was awarded judgment for $400 against the Pacific Electric Railway Company by Judge Wood yesterday, after testifying that he had been beaten and kicked off a car. The conductor told he had struck Mr. Taylor and said that an unidentified stranger infected himself into the affair and fought with Mr. Taylor. The conductor declared he simply gathered up Mr. Taylor's packages and threw them off the car, which was going to the bars.

Your Property Rights—Your Business

Your Income Are Threatened!

CALIFORNIANS!

Do you want to be a renter and a tenant on your own property?

Do you want to have your state bonds outlawed by the rest of the world?

Do you want the financial credit of your state menaced by unbalanced fanatics, ready to try any experiment with the other fellow's money? Your money in this case!

Do you want the phenomenal industrial and commercial development of California to be halted, your industries starved for lack of Eastern Capital, heretofore forthcoming to finance Western Development?

Do you want to stop building?

Do you want to make it hard to sell land? To borrow money? To sell the mortgage on your house? To finance your business? To secure good wages from industry? To realize any return on real estate investments?

YOU DO NOT!

And yet this is exactly what will happen unless you vote "NO" on Amendment No. 20—which provides for trying out Single Tax in California.

But something more than merely voting "No" on Amendment No. 20 is necessary.

Let's put a stop to the perennial menace of this foolhardy experiment! Every other year for ten years Single Tax has been put up to the voters of California. Every other year for ten years the people have voted it down—each time by a larger majority!

Every other year for ten years the bankers and hard-headed business men of the country have seen the possibility of California becoming an unsafe investment!

We have faith in the people of California and their intelligence. We do not believe the single tax will ever carry. But the financial world, looking on, takes note that a very dangerous element exists within this state—the single taxers.

The proposition to confiscate land values and repudiate debts might carry, they think, and the financier of the East passes judgment on the credit of the state with that contingency in view.

Do you know why—

Not Selling?

—outside the state of California? Because investors will not take a chance on a state even contemplating the single tax. Ask your banker! Ask your broker! Ask your real estate agent! They are not theorists with a visionary and ridiculous Utopia in mind!

Let's stop this bi-annual menace—this weakening the state's borrowing power! Let's put an end to dumping "freak" laws on California!

Vote "Yes" on Amendment No. 4—to stop continuous voting on the single tax.

In a nutshell Amendment No. 4 provides for a petition of 25% of the voters of the state (instead of 5% as at present) before the assessment and collection of taxes may be tampered with.

It does not change the initiative, as some of its ill-advised opponents claim, except in matters pertaining to the assessment and collection of taxes. Let's make California safe for Californians! Make an end once and for all of such half-baked theorists as the single taxers and their ilk.

NEW STADIUM NOW ASSURED.

Tournament Committee Presents Complete Report.

Pasadena Provides Quarters for Rent Hog Victims.

Flower Show Proves a Popular Attraction.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE)
PASADENA, Oct. 29.—A concrete stadium, seating approximately 40,000 persons and occupying twelve acres in the Arroyo Seco near Brookside Park, will be built in 1921 to provide a place for the New Year's football games and other big events in Los Angeles county. It was announced today by the Tournament of Roses Association.

The announcement follows the ratification of the report of a special stadium committee, which has been investigating the possibility of the project for many months. The stadium matter was taken up early in the year, following the demonstration last New Year's that the present Tournament Park is much too small.

In announcing the plan for the stadium the Tournament of Roses Association said it was the intention of the association to build a stadium of the type which has been built in other parts of the country, and its plan for raising the funds, contemplates participation of the whole county. It is proposed to sell seats for football and other games in the stadium, at $10 and $15 each, thus raising $150,000 of the amount required to build the amphitheater.

The preliminary plans were worked out by a stadium committee comprising J. J. Mitchell, chairman, B. O. Kendall, L. H. Turner, H. O. Stachman, C. D. Daggett and George H. Frost.

The City Commission of Pasadena today appropriated $125,000 to buy the site to be erected in the municipal automobile camp in Brookside Park. These lands are to be rented to new residents who come to Pasadena and are unable to find housing accommodations.

Meantime, many present residents of Pasadena have been forced out of their homes through the skyrocketing of rents by "rent hogs" and they offer a problem. Some of them have been living in the automobile camp at Brookside Park. This report has been denied, but it has been confirmed by City Commissioner John J. Hamilton and school officials.

Mr. Hamilton stated that up to the present time residents forced out of their rented homes and rooms by unfair rents have been given temporary quarters, no rule that only auto campers from outside be accommodated having been enforced in the past. He stated, however, that the city does not aim to provide tents for Pasadenaans who sell their homes and then seek cheap shelter.

ORDER OF MOOSE SEEKS BEST LOCATION—RED CROSS HAS ANNUAL MEETING.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
POMONA, Oct. 29.—The Loyal Order of Moose is planning the establishment of a State home for aged members of the order and their parents. A Van Dersailen, a prominent member of Alameda county, is looking for a place that is suitable as a location for the home and spent the day in Pomona. After inspecting several possible sites the committee which was here, reported that there is one near Pomona that is the best they have seen in Southern California. Both San Bernardino and Riverside are bidding for the home, but thus far Pomona is the only city in which a suitable site has been located.

RED CROSS MEETING.
Another year of Red Cross activities was formally recorded and plans for the coming twelve months were made at the annual meeting of the Pomona Chapter of the American Red Cross, which was held last night at the First Christian Church.

There was a large attendance and was presided over by Rev. Walter C. Buckner, chairman of the local chapter. Reports of the secretary of the chapter, Miss Sarah M. Sager, and of the treasurer, John P. Brown, were read and twelve new directors were elected to serve during the next three years. Pomona's annual membership drive will be conducted here from November 14 to 22. Pomona's quota is 3000 members.

REDLANDS FLOWER SHOW.
REDLANDS, Oct. 29.—The fall flower show, which is almost entirely a chrysanthemum show, of the Horticultural Society is to be held on November 10 and 11.

The date was fixed at a meeting of the directors which was held today. The plan is always to fix the date when the chrysanthemums are at their best and it is believed that they will be in about two weeks.

The judges this year are to be professional gardeners from Pasadena.

Runaway Machine Causes Wild Panic at Redlands.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE)
REDLANDS, Oct. 29.—A runaway automobile dashing madly in a big crowd gathered at the Wyatt Theater, a pop-eyed owner, who had been run over leading the chase after it, and a motorcycle cop, attempting to stop the rampant beast, provided the making for a real drama here last night.

Israel Beal had trouble with his car. It stopped suddenly, on Colton avenue, a short distance from the theater. Not being able to start it, he "jacked" up the rear wheel, got in front and wound it up. All at once the engine started and the machine started down the street. Beal held it back, but was bowled over and the car ran gleefully over him. He hopped up just in time to see the car start into the crowd.

The crowd saw the driverless machine bearing down upon them, and ran for cover. As they ran, and as some of them fell, they heard Mr. Beal shouting, "Stop it! Stop it!" Glenn Fry, motorcycle official, had just arrived to take care of the traffic on the corner where the automobile coming and ran out to jump on the running board. Just as he was ready to climb on, the machine playfully edged off to one side and gave a sudden leap and sprang forward, leaving the policeman standing in the road.

By this time, several were chasing the runaway car. How far it would have gone is a question, but down the street a couple of hundred yards stood a car belonging to Joseph Cole.

The runaway small car evidently

The Housewives Burden

When a woman is almost distracted from overwork, her home is in disorder, crying children, and on top of all is suffering from backache, bearing down pains, or some other form of feminine ills, then she should remember that hundreds of women in just her condition have been restored to health and regained their youthful strength by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and not rest until she has given it a fair trial.

Proof that it Restored the Health of These Two Women

Calo, Ill.—“Some time ago I got so bad with female trouble that I thought I would have to be operated on. I had a bad displacement. My right side would pain me and I was so nervous I could not hold a glass of water. Many times I would have to stop my work and sit down or I would fall on the floor in a faint. I consulted several doctors and every one told me the same but I kept fighting to keep from having the operation. I had read so many times of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it helped my sister so I began taking it. I have never felt better than I have since then and I keep house and am able to do all my work. The Vegetable Compound is certainly one grand medicine.”—Mrs. J. R. MATTHEWS, 3311 Sycamore Street, Calo, Ill.

Chattanooga, Tenn.—“I used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before my baby came when I could no longer keep up. It strengthened my back and relieved me of the ill effect which so often develops at such times. That was my first experience with the Vegetable Compound. Years after, when I took it during the Change of Life and got along so well I scarcely ever had to lie down during the day and seldom had dizzy, fainting spells. I am now well and strong, can do all my housework with perfect ease and it is a comfort to me to be able to say to other suffering women ‘take Lydia E. Pinkham's medicine and be strong.’ I will be glad to have you use my name if it will be the means of helping any one.”—Mrs. R. A. FAIRBURN, 606 Orchard Knob Ave., Chattanooga, Tenn.

LEASE COMPANY WINS FORTUNE.

Over Quarter Million Dollars Involved by Decision.

Tale of Big Realty Venture and Subterfuge Told.

Timber King Camp Builder to Appeal, It is Said.

By a sweeping decision of Judge Avery yesterday in the suit of the Standard Leasing Company for a rescission of contract against William E. Hampton, so-called timber king, builder of Camp Kearny and Fort MacArthur, growing out of the leasing of about nine acres of land bounded by Sixth Mill, Industrial and Mateo streets, the leasing company won a substantial victory.

The effect of the decision, which followed a court trial of twelve weeks, is that the Standard Leasing Company is entitled to recover from the defendant approximately $250,000 paid as rents on the lease, with interest at 7 per cent; $20,000 spent for improvements on the land, and $25,000 paid for taxes. The court held, however, that the defendant is entitled to recover about $20,000 received as rent by the Standard Leasing Company. Regarding the $20,000 spent for improvements the court held that it represented the increased value of the property by reason of the improvements.

The evidence submitted is the story of a financial venture representing prominent capitalists. In a letter dated April 9, 1913, addressed to W. H. Daum, Mr. Hampton, a multi-millionaire, offered to lease this large section of land for ninety-nine years. The rental was to be $1600 a month, net, beginning May 1, 1913, and after Sept. 1, 1913, when full possession was to be given, the rental was to be $2200 a month, besides taxes and assessments.

ORGANIZE SYNDICATE.

Mr. Daum proceeded with the organization of a syndicate divided into ten interests, to acquire the leasehold, and the court holds that he sought and obtained subscription on that basis. He represented to his “co-adventurers” the opinion states that all were coming into the joint enterprise on the same plane of equality. He subscribed for a one-tenth interest himself. When nine others had been subscribed for, there was difficulty in finding a subscriber for the last one-tenth interest, and in order to complete the syndicate, he subscribed for the last tenth interest, thus holding two one-tenth interests. The Standard Leasing Company was organized about June 2, 1913, and the lease was executed, dated June 7, 1913, the Standard Leasing Company being the lessee, and Mr. Hampton the lessor.

An initial payment of $1000 was made by each subscriber for a one-tenth interest toward the common fund. Mr. Daum, as manager of the company, notified the subscribers of the amount necessary to be paid by him to meet his proportion of the taxes, rental, running expenses and costs of improvements, which were from time to time erected on the property.

When the lease was executed, the members of the syndicate executed to Mr. Hampton a bond for $50,000 conditioned for the faithful performance of the lease, or the erection of the buildings on the premises of a fair value of $250,000.

It was agreed by the so-called co-adventurers that the syndicate had the first chance to buy the interest of any one of them who desired to sell and if none cared to buy, it could be sold to an outsider.

On June 21, 1913, it seems, Mr. Hampton paid Daum $1000 and released him from his liability on the bond given to secure the lease. The court held that neither Mr. Hampton nor Mr. Daum ever notified any other member of the syndicate that Mr. Daum had sold and Mr. Hampton bought his one-tenth interest in the enterprise or that Mr. Daum had become an express trustee for Mr. Hampton or was partly released from his liability under the bond.

SERVE NOTICE.

The company served notice of rescission Jan. 10, 1919. The venture was unsuccessful. A few months after the lease was signed the burden of making monthly contributions to meet the expense of carrying the lease became burdensome. Complaint was made to Mr. Daum of this intolerable burden and the stockholders suggested the advisability of paying up the liability on the bond and quitting.

But Mr. Daum, while keeping the books and preparing the monthly notices of calls, concealed from his associates the fact, the court states, that he had sold half of his holding to Mr. Hampton, while Mr. Hampton, the court holds, “month after month, directly, personally and liberally, carried to fruition the plan of concealment. He drew each month his personal check to Daum for a one-tenth of the obligation, and Daum deposited the check to his own personal account and then drew his own check in favor of the syndicate for an amount sufficient to cover the Hampton one-tenth interest and his own one-tenth interest, as well.

FRAUD SO HINTED.

“The intentional concealment of the entire transaction, under the circumstances here existing, was in the language of our own Supreme Court, ‘a very potent badge of fraud,’ the court concludes.

During the trial the defendant contended that rescission should not be decreed because the plaintiff turned the land back to the defendant encumbered by five leases. The Standard Leasing Company included among its members John E. Marble, F. W. Braun, W. S. Bullis, U. S. District Judge Trimet, J. E. Fishburn, R. I. Rogers, W. D. Woolwine, Dr. A. Tyroler, W. H. Daum, F. W. La Grange and F. W. Smith. It is said that an appeal will be taken from the judgment.

SHE PREFERS STAGE.

So Husband of Vandeville Player is Granted a Divorce.

Mrs. Elsie B. Holland preferred vandeville to living with her husband, Cecil C. Holland, and so the latter was granted a divorce by Judge Taft yesterday. She was 17 years old when they married. He was 27. He went into the army and upon his return, Mrs. Holland could not be found. He learned she had gone into vandeville.

Finally Mr. Holland's brother met his sister-in-law in New York. She told him she was making good on the stage and did not need a husband. Mr. Holland went into film work and is also making good.

PLEDGES NEW JAP TREATY.

Shortridge Promises Early Settlement of Alien Problem if G.O.P. Wins.

cause we are determined and pledged to stop now, immigration into our State and country of undesirable peoples including Japanese, and this we shall do by treaty, duly and speedily negotiated, or by statute duly and speedily enacted. [Applause.]

THE TARIFF.

"If there be one State in this Union, one State whose peculiar situation, whose industries require a protective tariff, that State is California. The cost of labor, our standard of living, the cost of freight to reach the eastern market, all these and other elements make it necessary to our development and prosperity that we be protected from disastrous competition with the cheap products of cheap labor of foreign, alien countries. Manifestly, the lemon grower in San Diego, in Riverside, in Ventura, north of Tehachas, cannot compete with the Italian lemon grower. The bean grower of California cannot compete with the Manchurian bean grower, which territory, by the way, and which industry is today practically monopolized or controlled by

Japanese. The fig grower cannot compete with other countries, the wool grower cannot compete with the Australian; the rice industry of California, which is growing so rapidly and beneficially to producer and consumer, cannot compete successfully without the protection, the fostering, the aid of a tariff.

"Afraid of the tariff issue and the damage that the Underwood free trade law has done and is doing to California, the Democrats are now attempting to belittle the question, ridiculing the lemon industry and by false propaganda attempting to fool the people of California by the statement that the tariff is no longer in the hands of Congress, but will be settled by a tariff commission.

"One Democratic leader branded the issue as a joke. And now they come with misleading words to tell you that the tariff is out of the hands of Congress. You know better, I know better, that the Tariff Commission is merely an advisory committee of the Senate and House of Representatives, and of every other great industry in California rests in the hands of your chosen representatives in the Senate and the House of Representatives—and with a Republican President, Senate and House, we shall return to the protective tariff policy to foster, aid and encourage our industries, returning to the policy of our great leaders from the days of Washington, a policy that has brought untold prosperity to our nation. [Applause.]

"I want you to know that I am a protective tariff man and that I shall cast my vote in the Senate, representing by your will, a protective tariff, for a repeal of the Underwood free trade law and for the adoption of a Republican tariff law—for a tariff that fosters American industries and protects American labor from disastrous competition with the products of cheap labor. As we would and should exclude cheap service labor from America, so we would and should exclude from America the products of cheap labor. California is a protective tariff State and beyond any doubt or question will cast her electoral votes in November for Harding and Coolidge. [Cheers.]

"The tariff issue is no joke to Californians who see bankruptcy staring them in the face so the result of the existing Democratic tariff law. The tariff issue is no joke to the growers, the walnut growers, the wool men, the stock men, the poultry men, the rice and barley producers and the sugar-beet growers of California. Our people must have relief, they must be relieved, and the Republican party will give them relief. Of course, no relief can be hoped for as long as the Democratic administration. Democracy is another name for disaster.

ON THE JAPS.

"I stand today, where the records show I have taken my stand for the past twenty-five years, for immediate shutting off of Asiatic immigration, including Japanese into California or into any other State of our Union. [Applause.]

"Manifestly no relief can be expected from the Democratic organization, which has been in power for eight years and has done nothing. Manifestly nothing can be expected from him who is about to close his six-year experience in Washington, for he has done nothing, absolutely nothing. Eight years have come and gone, six years are drawing to a close, and we have no treaty negotiated, no law passed.

FOR NEW TREATY.

"I am authorized to say that when President-to-be Harding is in the chair on the 4th of March, next, there will be immediate and strenuous negotiations towards a treaty between this country and Japan, a treaty providing for the stopping of this immigration. The Republican House and the Republican Senate will sign an exclusion law and bar the doors of the Pacific to the coming of this undesirable race. [Applause.]

FOR OUR SHIPPING.

"I believe in a law which will encourage, aid and assist the merchant marine of America. If we have any brains, if we have got a little brains, we will take lessons of nations that have encouraged their shipping interests. England, the mighty empire of the seas, so-called, and France, Italy, Portugal, Norway, Sweden and all the maritime nations of Europe have severely aided and encouraged their shipping interests to the end that the products of the fields and their factories might be carried to the distant markets in their own ships.

"Recently there has been passed a law that has been called the Jones bill, a law designed to encourage men to invest capital in shipyards and in ships—America. The bill is the President of the United States, as I say, respectfully, but positively, without any authority or law, contrary to law, has refused to enforce the provisions of that Jones law. It is in the chair, that Jones law in its various features will be enforced. It may require amendment hereafter, but the purpose of the law is to encourage shipbuilding by giving a preference to American ships, to the American merchant marine so that this city here, if we carry out that policy, this city will become an even greater shipbuilding and maritime city. [Applause.]

STRONG PLATFORM.

"I am strongly in favor of Federal legislation that will aid, foster and build up the great harbors of California. The Federal government cannot do too much in the way of harbor development for California, for at San Diego, Los Angeles and San Francisco are the great gateways of the nation, that open on the highways of commerce to the wealth of the Orient, South and Central America and the South Pacific.

"I am pledged to aid in the extension of farm credits and to foster the producers' co-operative marketing associations, the farmers' organizations, which the Democratic administration has done its best to destroy.

"I shall support legislation to protect and rebuild the gold mining industry of California. The gold bonus bill, which should be speedily adopted, will extend the life of the gold and silver mining industry and approve the policy of the Federal and State governments providing for the construction of permanent highways, and shall do all in my power to aid in the development of irrigation, reclamation, flood control and water power projects so necessary to the upbuilding of our State, as well as to the development of our harbors and inland waterways.

"I believe that Federal aid should be extended to irrigation projects in addition to what State aid may be given, and shall work to accomplish this object.

"Mrs. Harry Kuegel, a member of the Republican National Committee read a telegram from Senator Hiram Johnson urging the election of Shortridge.

"The three young men were arrested by Police Detectives Simpson and Jarves on charges of having burglarized a warehouse store at Fourth and Hill streets. They confessed to the crime and were sentenced to six months each by Police Judge Richardson.

"According to the police the three young sailors burglarized the tobacco store for the purpose of being dishonorably discharged from the Navy in which they had served only two months each. After having been found out and discharged at San Pedro the three youths were at once taken into custody by the officers and confined for 15 days each.

Scarcity of Telephone Equipment

As new subscribers a number of individuals have recently placed orders with us for telephones. Old subscribers have asked for service at new locations. They have been told by our representatives that immediate compliance with their desires was impossible owing to lack of "telephone facilities" in a particular locality. "Why?" one will say. "The poles and wires are on the street and the house is already wired."

We wish that the problem were as simple as it sounds. There may be poles and wires, but every wire may be in use in giving service to others. There may be a cable, but every circuit in it may be assigned to telephones already installed. There may be spare wires and circuits, but no switchboard apparatus at the central office to which they can be connected. There may even be sections of switchboard, but not available for operation on account of the lack of necessary accessories such as ringing boys, relays, etc.

The reason for the shortage of telephone equipment is simple. During the war period we were unable to maintain our reserve or stock plant as the same materials we were required and taken for Government purposes and for industries properly favored by the Government. Since the war, with the unexpectedly prolonged problems of reconstruction, production and delivery of materials needed to meet even current demands have been delayed. Every business concern is having similar experience. The manufacturers of telephone equipment have been bending every effort to fill our orders, but they in turn are meeting the same difficulties in securing rubber, paper, silk, glass, porcelain, tin, thread, shellac, metal parts and other articles not generally associated in the public mind with telephone service.

At the same time with this abnormal situation with reference to materials, there exists an unprecedented demand for telephone service, and even under these circumstances our record is one of fulfillment of demand. Since the Armistice we have added 21,000 telephones in the Los Angeles Exchange. In the year prior to our declaration of war there were added approximately 5,000 telephones. The telephone growth today is not only unprecedented, but phenomenal!

We desire to give service as much as a patron wishes to receive it. We desire to promptly comply with the suggestions of public authorities who have taken a proper interest in the situation. We are facing abnormal conditions but we will of necessity, gradually overcome our difficulties.

DAILY TRADE TALK.

Henry M. Robinson Returns from East; New Clearinghouse Record.

BY CHAPIN HALL.

Henry M. Robinson, president of the First National and since Los Angeles Trust and Savings bank, returned yesterday from a trip of several weeks' duration, which took him to the financial centers of the East, and included attendance upon the national convention of the American Bankers' Association in Washington, where the Los Angeles banker occupied so prominent a place during the session.

Mr. Robinson declined to either point with pride or view with alarm, the present state of affairs, but he said the idea of a serious long-drawn-out financial depression without any real panic, which would be a marked reduction of commodity output, but readjustment of the financial and business interests were prepared to meet the crisis, but he said that conditions here in Los Angeles and Southern California are basically sound and that the pressure of readjustment will be felt in a lesser degree here than almost anywhere else in the country.

At the convention, this city was represented by a strong delegation, which succeeded in securing the meeting, thirty-eight hundred delegates were in attendance at Washington, and he thought that at least 2000 would make the westward trek.

The financing of Europe is one of the great problems of the day, and the discussion of ways and means occupied an important place in the deliberations of the convention. Mr. Robinson's opinion on the subject of European financing was that the thought of Eastern bankers, while commodities are piling up rapidly at our eastern ports.

Mr. Robinson declined to express an opinion as to how long or how price wars would drop, but he had no hesitancy in predicting that the election of Senator Harding on Tuesday, before going to Washington he attended the Chinese consular in New York, but that is another story. The first problem for consideration there, he said, was the one of transportation.

As a result of a sketchy talk, following a meeting of the bank's executive committee, I gathered that Mr. Robinson feels that the country is set firmly upon its feet and that while some of the bright lights which have featured our more or less hectic existence during the past few years are due for extinguishment there will remain plenty of illumination to guide the way through the dark and big financing through the shoals immediately ahead, but which will offer no insurmountable difficulties to careful investors.

ANOTHER RECORD GONE.
Los Angeles clearinghouse has broken another record.
More business through the association during October than in any other month in the history of the organization.

The total with today estimated, is $10,000,000.
This is the second record to be broken in as many months, the bank holding the blue ribbon for a single period.

Lead month the clearings were $34,945,850.14. This was the peak, $77.14.
In October, 1919, the clearings totaled $30,750,550.34, a net gain for this year of $1,245,299.80.

It is not so many months ago that this latter figure would have been considered a big month's business by itself.
The steady increase in volume of bank clearances is a tangible evidence, bankers say, of the sound economic and financial position held by Los Angeles and the surrounding area of a rising tide which will establish, during the next six months, the record for the history of the city.

MUNICIPAL MARKET STRONGER.
Three new Southern California bond issues have been purchased by the bond department of the Bank of Italy. These issues include $200,000 Antelope Valley Union High School District 4% per cent bonds, $115,000 city of Alhambra School District 4% per cent and $125,000 city of Santa Ana School District 4% per cent bonds. The fact that according to the three issues is an indication of the increasing strength of municipal bond market.

DIAMOND MATCH SELLS FAST.
Blair & Co. and the Illinois Trust and Savings Bank brought out a new issue of $5,000,000 Diamond Match Company fifteen-year 7% per cent sinking fund gold debentures yesterday. The bonds were offered at par, but they were sold on the New York curb at 104 1/2 to 105, according to advices received by local dealers. The issue, it is reported, was greatly oversubscribed, and the bonds were closed down after the sale was opened.

MARKET SHAKE-UP.
The brokerage house of A. W. Coote in a special market bulletin says: "The break looks like the usual shake-out and house-clearing preparatory to a general price advance after election. Prior to such an advance it is customary for market leaders to attempt to shake out weak accounts and accumulate all the stock possible, this stock later being fed back into the rising market. It is, in particular, look for a big advance in the stock market, and the stock market will be a good fifteen points below present levels, while the laws and rates under which they are now operating are the most beneficent in the history of American railroading. On the other hand, industrial average about fifteen points below normal prices. The law of compensation shows what may be expected of the future."

PERMITS TO SELL STOCK.
Commissioner of Corporations E. C. Ballou has given the Pacific Casket Company of Los Angeles authority to issue 399 1/2 shares as stock dividends to its stockholders, 71 1/2 shares to each of the 1000 shareholders, and to sell 200 shares at par for cash.

The House of Ralston, also a Los Angeles concern, is permitted to issue 2000 shares to one of its incorporators in exchange for his business, and to sell 1000 shares at par $10, for cash.

FINANCIAL SITUATION.
Good, so far as California is concerned; improving elsewhere. Reserve banks are maintaining legal reserves at a figure slightly above legal requirement. Commercial paper still commands a 1 per cent in many instances. Some regular borrowers are supplying their requirements from internal sources, and credit is said to be lessened.

FINANCIAL

OFFICE OF THE TIMES
Los Angeles, Oct. 30, 1920.
Bank clearings yesterday were $11,977,546.80, an increase of $1,000,000 over the corresponding day in 1919.

STRONGER UNDERTONE ON PRODUCE MARKET.

APPLES ARE HIGHER UNDER BRISK DEMAND; POTATOES DECLINE SLIGHTLY.

Under an active buying demand, a steady advance prevailed for most lines of fruits and vegetables during the session on the local produce market yesterday. Some of the advance was sharply during the day, owing to the scarcity of supply. All varieties of apples of good quality moved upward, the bulk of the day's offerings were 25 cents per bushel higher for the average run of the market. Potatoes declined slightly.

The only commodity to retreat to a lower level was the local market for the day, when the price of the average run of the market was 25 cents per bushel lower for the average run of the market. Potatoes declined slightly.

The Personal Equation in Bond-buying

One of the features of bond-buying, seldom mentioned, but very important to the bondholder, is the personal responsibility for the success or failure of the issuing company.

Considered from this angle, the 8% Serial Gold Bonds of the Los Angeles Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company are very attractive. The men who have been responsible for this Company, who have brought the business to its present large and successful proportions are well-known and successful Los Angeles business men. These men are prominently connected with other enterprises and are known for their achievement and sound judgment.

The extensive equipment of this Company fills a particularly pressing need. International trade at the port of Los Angeles has grown to such proportions that the adequate dry dock and repair facilities offered by this Company are imperative demand.

Two big factors make this Company sound, profitable business enterprise; one is the need for such a business at the port of Los Angeles, and the other is a personal equation of successfully conducting the business.

LONG TERM FOR BRUTAL ATTACK

Two Sentences Meted Out to Assault of Woman.

Two to Sixty-four Years in Prison Price of Act.

Offense One of Worst Ever Known to Police Here.

Pay day came yesterday for Francisco Reguera, whom Judge Williams sentenced to San Quentin for two to sixty-four years for attacking and molesting Mrs. Emma Lou Rainbolt last April 12.

The offense was one of the worst of the sort ever reported to the local police. Mrs. Rainbolt, finding the family finances rather low, sought motion-picture work to help her husband obtain an education in dentistry.

She met Reguera, after failing to earn a great deal of money as an extra, and knowing that he was associated in some manner with low, sought motion-picture work to help her husband obtain an education in dentistry.

MARRIAGE ANNULLED

"Husband" Seen with Another Woman, Admits He's Bigamist.

Mrs. Myrtle M. Carleton told Judge Crail yesterday that she saw her husband, William H. Carleton, on the street with another woman. He was holding this woman's arm, she testified in an affidavit proceeding.

"I asked him what right he had to walk holding another woman's arm," she testified in an affidavit proceeding. "He replied he was not my husband, because he was not legally married to me."

Subsequently Mrs. Carleton found a divorce complaint in a suit by another woman, which had been served on her husband. She said she asked him about it and he admitted he had not been legally separated from a former wife. Judge Crail granted an annulment.

Why Foreign Countries Anxiously Watch Next Tuesday's Election

Never before has an American election been fraught with so much meaning to the rest of the world, to judge from the anxiety evident in the comment of the foreign press. In fact, this became so evident as the campaign went on that THE LITERARY DIGEST sent out an inquiry to the press abroad asking their views on our political struggle.

In this week's number of "THE DIGEST"—October 30th—the replies to this inquiry are printed. They range from a tone of ardent hope that whether the next President be Mr. Harding or Mr. Cox, his election will clear away the after-mists of war which have risen from the Peace Treaty and the League of Nations, through degrees of distrust and cynicism to utter dismay that the United States, which was capable and courageous enough to help win the war, seems to lack the intelligence to realize she must also help win the peace. The replies that are printed represent seventeen countries in all, including England, Ireland, Scotland, France, Germany, Belgium, Japan, Spain, China, Sweden, etc.

Coming, as it does, practically on the eve of our Presidential election this article will be read with great interest in America, as it reveals the world-wide anxiety over the outcome.

DENTON ESTATE BATTLE WAITS.

Civil Suits May be Held Up Till After Peete Trial.

Prosecutors Prepare Charts of the Murder Mansion.

Accused Woman Smiling and Cheerful Under Strain.

Civil action against Mrs. Louise L. Peete, under indictment on the charge of murdering J. C. Denton, may be delayed until the outcome of the criminal case against her, it became known yesterday. Civil suits for the recovery of Denton's diamond ring, $750 in cash asserted to have been obtained by Mrs. Peete on forged checks, rents collected by her on the Catalina-street house and gown purchases by her in a local department store under the name of "Mrs. J. C. Denton," were planned by Judge Avery, administrator of the Denton estate, some weeks ago, but are held in abeyance pending action by the District Attorney's office.

Should the District Attorney deem it advisable to allow Judge Avery and Attorney Rush M. Blodgett, representing the estate, to go ahead with the civil suits first, action will be brought against Mrs. Peete inside of one week. So far, however, the District Attorney has reached no decision on this point, it was learned yesterday.

Attorney W. J. Ford, who, with W. D. Van Nostran will defend Mrs. Peete, spent most of the afternoon at the County Jail in conference with her yesterday. Richard C. Peete, the woman's husband, remained near and later had a talk with his wife. Following the conference, Mr. Ford announced that he and Mr. Van Nostran are now acquainted with the major portion of Mrs. Peete's story, and that preparations for the trial, to begin November 22, are being rushed with all possible speed.

CHARTS OF HOUSE.

While Mr. Ford was conferring with his client, attorneys employed by the District Attorney were working on plans and charts of the Denton house. With these the prosecution will attempt to make it clear to the jury how Mrs. Peete, according to the State's theory, shot and killed Denton and later dragged his body to the basement, where it was buried. The making of the charts will occupy several days.

Yesterday morning Dist. Atty. Woolwine and Deputies Doran and Turner, who worked on the case in Mr. Woolwine's absence, visited the Denton home and with the artists examined the rooms they wish to have drawn and charted. Later, Deputies Doran and Turner began work on the assembling of the case, which promises to be one of the most sensational in the annals of the county.

Mrs. Peete's life in the County Jail is fast becoming regular and peaceful. Instead of tears and sighs, fellow-prisoners see smiles and hear cheerful remarks from Mrs. Peete. She is as vivacious as ever, and to all appearances is standing up under the strain much better than was expected by her friends. Her husband, whose health requires most of his attention and who has been neglecting himself to be of as much help to Mrs. Peete as possible, yesterday looked much better than at any time in the past two weeks.

NOT WRITING APPEAL.

Attorney Ford, after his talk with Mrs. Peete, announced that his client is not writing an appeal to the public, as reported. She will make no appeal except through the regular channels, and at present is contemplating no literary efforts, Mr. Ford said.

No statements were issued at the District Attorney's office yesterday regarding the progress of the case, but it was learned that new evidence is being accumulated. The nature of this evidence is not likely to be made public before the trial, however, as its effect will be much greater, from the prosecution's point of view, if it comes as a surprise.

Miss Frances A. Denton, the murdered man's daughter and heir to the Denton estate, will enter St. Mary's Academy here this morning, and will remain in Los Angeles to continue her studies. Provision for this was made by Judge Avery yesterday.

TELLS POWER OF INK.

Advertising Manager Talks at Bump-off Meeting of Club.

Two hundred men and women at a "round table" conference of the Advertising Club yesterday heard Robert F. Crane, Pacific Coast manager of Lord & Thomas, discuss technical phases of their profession. The meeting was the largest in the history of these "round table" discussions.

Mr. Crane stressed the growing importance of newspapers as a force educating the public to immediate action.

"There is no magic in the business of advertising—nothing clever or ingenious," he said. "It is merely a form of business service, of business counsel, sane, safe and sound. There is not a large business firm on the Pacific Coast today which does not recognize that to gain good will for its trade mark and products, and thereby to increase the turnover, is a necessity in these times."

Smallpox Verdict in Hollywood Case Upheld by Several Physicians.

Branding recent reports of improper enforcement of the quarantine regulations as "rumor, hearsay stories or deliberate misrepresentations," Health Commissioner Powers last night issued a statement dealing specifically with the so-called Hollywood High School exclusion cases.

That the patient in question had smallpox, he said, is substantiated by affidavits made by Drs. A. S. Stalnaker, U. S. McVie, and E. D. Ward, supporting the diagnosis. "I feel that my diagnosis," he said, "supported by that of three other physicians, is more reliable than that made by others, who did not see the patient, and made their diagnosis by mystic methods."

Prices Reached By a Flat 20% Reduction Through Our Entire Stock

This was not a thing that could be "jumped at"—there was no possibility of rushing into it with hurrahs and fireworks—not with a great stamp of clothing marked as CLOSELY as was ours!

We did not hesitate because of our own right to profit—that was not the thought—but before making any drastic move we felt we must sound out the market through every channel open to us and find out EXACTLY what was likely to be the position of the manufacturers and just how low down the scale we would find it advisable to drop prices so that

We Would Not Only Meet the Indicated Decline But Go It One Better

We have not rushed out into the declining market and bought "jobs"—not by a long sight. These are always the LEAST desirable of all that manufacturers have to offer. More than that, they would not be "Hamburger tailored"—and that is a big point!

What we have done is to take our own REGULAR stocks and reduce the prices a flat 20%.

But though the market is declining, we have considered it wise to make our clothing for men and boys at a price LOWER than all indications point will be maintained before next Fall or later! This is an effort to make prices come down to ABSOLUTE BED ROCK, with no compromises!

So There Is Every Wisdom in Your Buying Now

Today we know what we can do—what we are doing! We know that we are offering you the BEST VALUES it would be possible for you to get under the most settled conditions. And the earlier you choose, the better your selection—naturally!
